

U.S. Navy Increases Forces at Base in Cuba

Verbal Attacks Continue

WASHINGTON (UPI)—The Navy reported today it has beefed up its Marine contingent at the Guantanamo Naval Base in Cuba, a target of increasingly bitter attacks by Cuban Premier Fidel Castro.

The action coincided with diplomatic reports here that Cuba is expected to establish diplomatic relations shortly with Communist East Germany, further tightening Castro's political and economic ties with the Soviet and Communist Chinese bloc.

THE NAVY DECLINED to disclose the size of the increase but a spokesman said it was "not pertinent." The State Department element at Guantanamo is 180 enlisted men and 8 officers, the spokesman said.

The Navy would not say whether the increase was the result of worsening relations between the United States and the Castro government. The State Department this week slapped an embargo on most trade with Cuba and recalled Ambassador Philip W. Bonsal for "extended consultations."

THE NAVY SPOKESMAN said the Marine reinforcements consisted of "a small number of security troops, carrying only side arms."

Cuban verbal attacks on the presence of U. S. forces at Guantanamo have sharply increased as tensions grow between the two countries. Castro and other Cuban leaders have challenged the U. S. right to occupy the base and called the presence of U. S. forces a symbol of "Yankee imperialism."

HOWEVER, CASTRO has not gone so far as to demand abandonment of the base. Adm. Arleigh A. Burke, chief of U. S. naval operations, has said repeatedly that the base, ceded to the United States by treaty, will be defended if attacked.

The U. S. action to strengthen Marine forces on Guantanamo came in the wake of a series of developments underlining the deterioration in U. S.—Cuban relations. They included:

—PROPOSAL BY Sen. John F. Kennedy, the Democratic presidential nominee, that the United States seize all Cuban assets in this country.

—Forecast by diplomatic officials that Castro will use the U. S. economic boycott as an excuse for recognizing the Communist German government. Any such action probably would prompt West Germany to withdraw its ambassador from Havana.

—A recommendation by the nation-wide committee on import-export policy that the United States cut off all tariff concessions to Cuba.

Toppelberg Rites Are Scheduled In Los Angeles

Nathan J. Toppelberg, a retired New York handkerchief manufacturer who had lived here for the past 15 years, died after a short illness Wednesday night in Cedars of Lebanon Hospital at Los Angeles. He was 69.

Toppelberg was the former vice president of the N. Y. Handkerchief Manufacturing Company when his brother-in-law, Villager Jack Meiselman, was president of the firm.

He is survived by his wife, Joan, who lives here, and by his sister and brother-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Meiselman. Other relatives are located in Chicago and New York.

Funeral and interment is scheduled for Home of the Peace in Los Angeles.

Bond Election For Airport Set

Palm Springs City Council, at its informal luncheon meeting yesterday at the Palm Springs Riviera Hotel, tentatively set Tuesday, Feb. 21, 1961, as the date for the Airport Acquisition Bond Election.

At the same time the council determined that it would appoint members of the executive committee of the Airport Committee who would guide the issue through the education of all the facts.

The bond issue, the exact amount of which has not yet been set—approximately $3,500,000—must receive a two-thirds vote.

President Returns for Weekend of Rest; Democrats Attack 'Non-Partisan' Talk

A CRASH INTO THE REAR of a loaded semi-trailer truck at approximately 4:15 p. m. yesterday on Highway 99 one mile east of the Twentynine Palms cut-off, ground this 1961 sedan between truck bed and left rear duals. Driver John William Eastep, 44, of North Palm Springs, was apparently killed instantly in the crash. Passenger C. Ann Morris, 52, Whitewater matron, received severe facial lacerations, was taken to Desert Hospital, transferred to Riverside General Hospital. Said marks indicated the sedan slid into the left rear of truck with locked wheels 75 feet before impact; truck traveled 300 feet to stop at roadside. Driver Wilbur Sheldon Campbell, 40, La Habra, told officers he "fell bump, thought I had blown a tire," until he saw car in rear-view mirror. California Highway Patrol theorized Eastep may have been blinded by setting sun, failed to see truck in right lane ahead of him. Eastep, a mechanic at Garnet, had been desert resident 18 months. Funeral arrangements will be reported tomorrow. (Desert Sun Photo)

To Stay Until Monday

President Eisenhower, trailed by a mounting Democratic fury following a "non-political" San Francisco speech in which he played presidential candidate John Kennedy, was scheduled to make a bee-line for Palm Springs this afternoon.

Sources close to the President said that he would arrive at "about 2:10 p. m." following an address before the Inter-American Congress of Municipalities meeting at San Diego.

THE PRESIDENT'S plans for the afternoon included at least an attempt to get in a round of golf before retiring tonight to the George Allen residence in La Quinta.

A full day of golf and sun-basking — in temperatures estimated to hit "between 85 and 90" — is in store for the Chief Executive tomorrow and more of the same is scheduled for Sunday. Eisenhower's huge Military Air Transport Service 707 will whisk the President back to his Capitol offices early Monday morning.

THE FUROR OVER the President's San Francisco talk began seconds after the conclusion of the address.

In his speech, Eisenhower said indirectly that the Democratic presidential nominee had debased the truth in campaign statements that the United States has lost prestige abroad in recent years. "When in the face of a bright record of progress and development, we hear some misguided people wall that the United States is stumbling into the status of a second-class power and that our prestige has slumped to an all-time low, we are simply listening to debasement of the truth."

ROGER KENT, state chairman for the Kennedy forces, immediately labeled the statements as "an attack on Senator Kennedy and an endorsement of Vice President Richard Nixon."

The Democrats asked for equal time on the four TV channels and two radio stations which carried the address, calling Eisenhower's statements "openly partisan."

Eisenhower toured San Diego military installations this morning prior to speaking before the Municipalities group.

Knox Manning To Be Speaker At Hotel Meet

Knox Manning, a well-known network radio and television commentator, now a public relations executive associated with Pete Summers, Inc., Beverly Hills, will be one of the principal speakers at the 49th annual convention of the California State Hotel Association in Palm Springs October 23 through 26. His topic will be "Yugoslavia, Friend, or Enemy."

In making the announcement today, Paul Handlery, convention chairman, said that Manning's recent experiences while serving as official representative of the U. S. Secretary of Commerce in Yugoslavia are expected to be of particular interest to the hotel men.

MANNING WAS in Yugoslavia to discuss travel and tourism with officials of the Communist government of that country, and to represent the United States at "America Day" at the International Trade Fairs in Belgrade and Zagreb.

About 500 California hotel men are expected to attend this convention. Headquarters for the group will be at the Palm Springs Riviera Hotel.

STREET NUMBER SIZE LIMIT ASKED

Councilman Harry Paisley at the City Council luncheon at the Riviera Hotel yesterday asked the council if it would back a program to limit the size of house numbers on Palm Springs main streets.

Paisley, disturbed over reports that local hotels will attempt to circumvent the city's sign ordinance by playing up their address numbers, brought the matter to the council hoping to avert a hotel price war.

THE COUNCILMAN especially noted that Councilwoman Mary Carlin could be of some aid to the city in this program by legally attacking any hotel owner who would attempt to copy the Carlin's sign (850 Hotel), she having it filed as the legal name of her establishment.

"However," said Paisley, "this would not prohibit a local hotelman from putting up a huge sign displaying his street number which at a glance would look like a rate sign; i. e. '385'."

ONE TYPE of numbered sign which might pass could be a series of numbers listing a hotel as 480-4-2 Hotel, but City Attorney Jerry Bunker said this definitely would be a rate sign.

However, members of the council took a dim view of the suggestion saying that this was "making a mountain out of a molehill" and the chances of street numbers fitting in to a rate sign were very few.

The suggestion made by Paisley was brought about by a south end hotel owner who last week appeared before the council to protest local rate signs.

Scouts to Sell American Flags In Palm Desert

PALM DESERT—In a three-hour house-to-house campaign Saturday, Boy Scouts will show the spirit of Troop 76 here, as they seek to sell 100 United States Flags for residential use.

Under the direction of Scoutmaster Robert Grant and new assistant Scoutmaster Mike Walters, the Boy Scouts will cover this growing desert community from 9 a. m. to noon tomorrow.

The Scouts will offer American flags, complete with stout oak poles and steel brackets with a bonus of reprints of the Declaration of Independence, and the Bill of Rights of the United States Constitution. The facsimile docu-

EXPERTS PUZZLED ON GOLD 'PROFITS'

NEW YORK (UPI)—The swift puncturing of the "gold bubble" that sent the price of bullion soaring to $40.60 in London Thursday and $42 to Toronto had experts puzzling over who profited.

Somebody made a lot of money and somebody lost a lot in the wild scrambling market. The gold fever definitely had subsided in London today as the opening price fell to $36.55, down almost $4 from Thursday's top.

BUT ACROSS THE world in Hong Kong, the fever broke out again today sending the price briefly up to U. S. $50.85, before trading was suspended.

London reported widespread assumption that American interests operating through Swiss banks were responsible for Thursday's buying.

THE BUBBLE burst when the U. S. Treasury said firmly the United States has no intention of raising the official $35 an ounce buying price. American economists, among them Dr. Marcus Nadler of New York University, said speculators who think the next administration in Washington will raise the gold price are deluding themselves.

The London price dropped back below $38 after the Washington announcement, following the most hectic trading since the London gold market was reopened in 1954 after its long wartime and post-war suspension.

Accident Victim Reported in Fair Condition

Roscoe S. Grosvenor, 60, of 68-195 Terrace Road, Cathedral City, received a fractured skull and abrasions when his car struck the left rear of a stopped vehicle, and bounced into the path of an oncoming vehicle on Highway 111 near Snow Creek Road at 12:10 p. m., yesterday, the California Highway Patrol reported.

The CHP said Grosvenor, southbound on the road toward Palm Springs, swerved to miss a vehicle driven by Patricia K. Driemeyer, 57, of Palos Verde Estates, which had stopped in front of him. He struck the rear of the Driemeyer car, and bounced into the path of a car driven by Frank McDonald Mayo, 42, of Hemet. Mayo attempted to swerve to the right to avoid the collision, the CHP reported.

Grosvenor is in Desert Hospital, where his condition is reported as "fair."

TICKET OFFICE TO OPEN EARLY FOR CONCERT
Because of the last-minute demand for tickets to the Marais and Miranda benefit concert for UNICEF, sponsored by the Palm Springs Chapter of the American Association for the United Nations, the ticket office at Palm Springs High School will be opened at noon tomorrow.

The world-traveling pair are slated to perform at 8 p. m., tomorrow, in the school's auditorium.

'GREAT DEBATES'

Foreign Policy Subject Tonight

NEW YORK (UPI)—Vice President Richard M. Nixon and Sen. John F. Kennedy air their differences over foreign affairs tonight in an hour-long windup of their historic series of "Great Debates."

Four television and radio networks will carry the encounter, which starts at 6 p. m. p. d. t., into the homes of millions.

PHYSICALLY, the two presidential candidates will be closer together than in their three previous debates but the six feet separating them on a too-high television stage could just as well be a mile concerning their views on the face-to-face meetings.

Kennedy steadfastly insisted that a fifth debate be staged nearer the election Nov. 8 while Nixon stuck by his decision that tonight's fourth encounter would be the last.

to one hour, rejecting a Nixon proposal to extend it another hour which would be used to answer questions telephoned by viewers and listeners.

Four TV-radio newsmen will question the two candidates about foreign affairs, the subject agreed to by both when the basic format was drawn for the four debates.

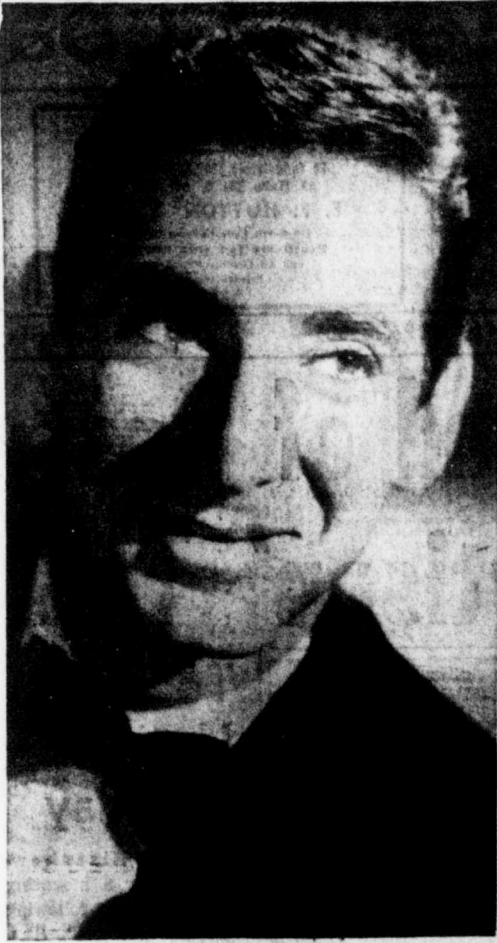

AMERICAN BROADCASTING Company news commentator Quincy Howe will moderate the program. Newsmen panelists will be John Edwards, ABC news commentator; Walter Cronkite, Columbia Broadcasting System news commentator; Frank Singiser, Mutual Broadcasting System news correspondent; and John Chancellor, National Broadcasting Company news correspondent.

J. Leonard Reinsch, Kennedy's TV adviser, said he had asked Treasury Undersecretary Fred C. Scribner, Nixon's adviser, if the possibility of a fifth debate was still open. Reinsch said Scribner told him it was not.

RAY HASTINGS, WHO SOARED to stardom on the wings of his appearances on the Jack Paar Show in 1959, headlines the new show which opens in the Chi Chi Starlite Room tonight. His "Punch Drunk Bullfighter" is considered a modern classic in humor annals and he'll be joined in the Chi Chi appearance by perennial Village vocal favorite Mary Meade French, acrobats Paul and Paulette and by the Bill Alexander Orchestra.

AFTER SUNSET

Scheherazade Prize Lures Village Girls

By GEORGE LAINE

Before sundown on Nov. 6, the Palm Springs candidate for the Queen Scheherazade title will be the toast of this town, and, perhaps, on her way to reigning over the 1961 Indio County Fair and National Date Festival.

That's the day that the Palm Springs Junior Women's Club will sponsor one of this community's most actively followed competitions — complete with poolside luncheon and entertainment — at the Biltmore Hotel.

LAST YEAR'S BIG show, held at the Desert Inn, was a real treat for all concerned. Sharp entertainment and a bevy of pretty girls make for an interesting afternoon and you can bet your reporter didn't exit until the entire show was over.

What makes this particular competition so outstanding here is the particularly high quality of girl demanded by the Date Festival. Since she'll be spending most of a 10-day period away from her schoolbooks, they reason, the girl chosen should be able to pick up that slack when she gets back to class. She must have a B average to support this aim.

I'M NOT CERTAIN that brains should have much weight in choosing beauty contest winners but if last year's choice here — Betty Weatherford — is any criteria, they ought to pick all beauty contestants by brains.

Palm Springs has had two Queen Scheherazade winners, Sally Pringle in 1951 and Barbara Duer in 1957.

With what I saw on stage at the Deb selection competition, I'd say that 1961 might well again be the year that a Palm Springs girl captures this county's most highly-coveted beauty prize.

JOHN ROBERT CLARKE, whose "Adventures in Living" series have been so stimulating and so well attended in the past two seasons, opens his third year here Thursday but in brand-new surroundings.

Clarke will utilize the beautiful confines of the Biltmore Hotel for his lecture — discussion programs and the move is expected to enhance the series.

With the scheduled publication of his first book by David McKay, Clarke's importance is assuming greater proportions for his San Diego - Beverly Hills - Palm Springs audiences. His initial lecture ought to be a humdinger.

TONIGHT'S CHI CHI opener ought to be a rouser, too.

Ray Hastings has proved one thing beyond all question of doubt: TV can make or break you overnight. With Ray, TV made him.

Once getting there, however, the star has to deliver to stay and that's what marks Ray as one of the best bets for permanent stardom — his growing popularity.

The rest of the show is great, too (And I'll be particularly tickled to see Mary Meade French back amongst us. She's neat.)

ALSO ON TAP TONIGHT is the Ranch Club opening, the debut of the new Billy Allen Band at the Biltmore Hotel, and a party for the visiting Washington press corps thrown by Ray Ryan at the El Mirador Hotel.

Looks like a busy evening . . .

NOTES OFF THE CUFF: Pickarib boy Ben Pollack brought a bunch of neon signs from a fellow on Sunset Boulevard the other day, then learned — when the signs didn't arrive — that the man didn't own 'em . . . Next item for Benny? The Brooklyn Bridge . . .

Larry Fay said that I was mad at Estelle, the non-veteran dancer who closed at Chi Chi last night, because the girl sleeps on an ironing board. . . That's not true, Larry . . . She can sleep anywhere she likes . . .

COUPLE BRINGING BALLADEER TITLE TO COMMON USAGE

Joseph Marais and Miranda who will appear at the Palm Springs High School auditorium on Saturday, October 22 for the benefit of UNICEF, have adopted a word which may not yet be in your dictionary but which is rapidly becoming popular among music lovers in Europe and America. The word is "balladeer." It does not mean a collector, arranger or singer of ballads, but includes all three and more.

Tickets for the concert may be obtained at Pat Barbara's Music Store, Palm Springs Music Co., or by calling FA 4-4734 or writing Box 1478.

PATZNER LAUDS MEMBERS OF HIGH SCHOOL BAND

The 70-odd members of the Palm Springs High School band, with one honor on their awards board and others in the offing, this week drew large measure of praise from Band Director Gustave Patzner.

"This is one of the most enthusiastic groups in band history at the school," said Patzner.

IT IS ALSO ONE of the largest, he said, and won the sweepstakes prize in the Stage Coach Days parade at Banning recently.

In addition to performing in a wide variety of such functions here and in other communities, the band also plays for all school events, Patzner noted.

Band officers include Allan Burgstahler, drum major; Tamara Smith, secretary; Robert Lewis, librarian, and Carolyn Wiswell, representative.

POM - PON Girls who work in conjunction with the band include Vickie Davenport, Robbie Floyd, Mary Lou Ballagh, Marie Jambretz, Alexa Clark, Julie Fisher, Betty Weatherford, Beverly Otto and Ardell Ford. Miss Ford is chief pom-pom girl.

Majorities who march with the band are Gretchen Stainbrook, Patty Patzner, Paulette Koops and Linda Gable. Miss Gable is head majorette.

'WATER DAY' SET BY SUPERVISORS

Oct. 27 was proclaimed by the Board of Supervisors this week to be "Water Day" and citizens of Riverside County are urged to take time on that day to seek information on the California Water Plan, so that they may go to the polls Nov. 8 well informed on Proposition One which is for financing the first unit of the plan by a 1 1/2 billion dollar bond issue to build the Feather River project.

"Local water supplies are subject to weather and temperamental rainfall that fluctuates between excess and drought, being more drought than excess which falls in the winter when needed least," states the Proclamation.

"To survive we must import large quantities of water from sources outside and we now face reduction of our supply of Colorado River water by Supreme Court action, and even were this not curtailed there is still not enough water in the Colorado River to supply needs of Southern California. The need is serious."

Riverside County citizens are urged in the proclamation to participate in and support water rallies on "Water Day" which call attention to the importance of water and the Feather River project to Southern California.

Burglary Suspect Is Bound Over to Superior Court

Leonard Thomas Bagwell, 36, who pleaded guilty in Justice Court here Wednesday to two counts of burglary under the alias of Richard Len Kent, has been bound over to Superior Court, Indio, for appearance Oct. 25.

Bagwell, who reportedly began his arrest record when he broke into a Charlotte, N. C., postoffice was caught here Monday in a room of the Ocotillo Lodge, Palm Springs police said.

Bagwell, as Kent, had implicated 23-year-old Hollywood model Angel Cecilia Coate in his crime. But investigation revealed Miss Coate had only met Bagwell Saturday evening in a hotel dining room, and had repulsed his overtures of acquaintance. She was released to return home Wednesday.

Pair of Scientists Grab Nobel Medals

STOCKHOLM — (UPI) — Two scientists from England and Australia won the 1960 Nobel Prize for Medicine and Physiology yesterday for their work in breaking an "immunity barrier" so human organs may be transplanted from one person to another.

The scientists were Prof. Peter Brian Medawar of London and Sir Frank MacFarlane Burnet of Melbourne. They will share prize money of $43,625.

BOTH MEDAWAR and Burnet are familiar in American academic circles. Medawar lectured at Harvard University in 1949 and gave the Harvey lectures in New York in 1957. Burnet lectured at Harvard Medical School in 1944, at Johns Hopkins University in 1950 and Vanderbilt University in 1958.

Both men are specialists in immunology. They were honored for their discovery of immunological patterns in the human body and the method by which these patterns may be overcome to permit transplant operations.

Dear Abby

... by Abigail VanBuren

DEAR ABBY: I couldn't believe my eyes when I read your advice to buy a miniature French poodle for a 7-year-old boy. That's a dog for a rich lady who has nothing to do but pamper a spoiled ball of fluff. Tell the parents to get the child an Airedale. It can take all the teasing, cuddling and nailing a small boy can do.

"FLO FROM ST. JO"

DEAR ABBY: My husband calls himself a business man and makes a very good living. I have seen him buy cigarettes by the carton from a minor boy (17). He pays this boy much less than the regular wholesale price. He does some fancy figuring and is cheating the boy and breaking the law to boot. This bird can read and write and has been in business for 20 years. He is setting a bad example for our 16-year-old son who sees what he is doing and is nobody's fool. If I turned my husband in the whole family would suffer because of this idiot. What can I do?

HELPLESS

DEAR HELPLESS: Your husband may be financially solvent, but he is morally bankrupt. If you can't convince him to go straight — go straight to a lawyer and arrange separate maintenance (no divorce) and see if that doesn't change his business tactics.

DEAR ABBY: My letter might come as a shock to Howard, who raised Cain with you for okaying padding. I am a man of 40 who spent 20 years in Uncle Sam's Navy. I've gone out with girls all over the world. Some were padded and some were not. Some were all there and some were all there and yet more too. I never enjoyed their company any more or less

Put Out the Cat

BUFFALO, N.Y. (UPI) — A burglar alarm sounded early one morning at a local firm and police quickly converged on the scene.

Minutes later they reported back to headquarters that a cat, sitting quietly on a window sill, had cast a shadow that activated an electric eye to set off the alarm.

for these features. Last year I met and married the woman worth waiting for. She had false teeth and false this and false that. I didn't know anything was false except the teeth before I married her. Believe me, Abby, she can put all those beefy glamour girls to shame. It's personality and character and real devotion that counts!

Proposition No. 1--Yes

The State Water Plan, appropriately termed Proposition No. 1 on the November ballot, is the most important of all the proposals now before the voters, and the most expensive. After much soul searching, some 75 cities, counties, water districts, have joined with the state and other chambers of commerce, labor unions, farm groups, water experts and engineers in endorsing the proposal. And, after some soul searching also, The Desert Sun joins in recommending a "Yes" vote on Proposition One.

This proposition would authorize the State to issue $1.75 billion in bonds to meet the costs of the first stages of a state-wide water program estimated to cost eventually $15 billion to $18 billion. While these bonds are general obligation bonds, in that they are backed by the general fund of the state, they call for repayment of principal and interest from the revenues to be generated by the beneficial users of the program. Only in the case of deficit can the general funds be drawn upon, and then the withdrawal becomes a loan to be repaid with interest.

The whole plan is the result of some nine years of study and hassle in the Legislature. Admittedly, it is not perfect. But it is probably the best compromise which can be offered now, and its a big job and the thinking has to be big. It's not ideal, but neither is any governmental program. To wait for perfection in government is to arrive at anarchy. Let's get the show on the road with a "Yes" vote on Proposition One.

Your Chance to Learn

Palm Springs voters will have an opportunity Sunday to hear a debate on the differences between the two major parties, presented by speakers furnished by the local Republican Assembly and Palm Springs Democratic Club.

The debate, to be presented by the Mr. and Mrs. Club of the Jewish Community Center, at 8:30 p. m. at the Center, will be divided into two portions, one covering domestic issues and the other foreign policy.

A major portion of the program will be devoted to a question and answer period.

Political Pulse--Texas

EDITOR'S NOTE: Here is another of the dispatches on political activities in various areas of the country.

DALLAS, Tex. (UPI)—The presidential race is still so close in Texas that either candidate could come up with a gimmick to catch the attention and favor of the voters and win the state's 24 electoral votes.

The most unbiased political observers in Texas — the book-makers — quote the odds as 6-5 for Nixon. It's at least that close in a state where all state officials are Democrats, the legislature is 100 per cent Democratic and only one congressman is a Republican.

SEN. JOHN F. Kennedy's biggest disadvantage is his Catholic religion. Texas' one million voting Baptists don't like the idea of a Catholic in the White House.

The recent re-entry of Allan Shivers, who was governor four terms, into politics, certainly helped Nixon. It was Shivers who led the Democratic state executive committee into the Eisenhower camp in 1952.

HE SUPPORTED Eisenhower in 1956 and he is now supporting Nixon. He has explained all three bolts by saying he is "putting Texas ahead of the Democratic party."

Shivers soothes the political consciences of many old-line Democrats who find it hard to turn Republican, no matter how much they like the GOP's candidates and platform.

There is a strong rivalry between Shivers and Sen. Lyndon B. Johnson of Texas, the Democratic vice presidential candidate. Johnson took the state party leadership away from Shivers in 1956.

SHIVERS is a handsome man, a master of sarcasm and a clever campaigner. When Gerald Mann, director of the Kennedy-Johnson campaign in Texas, accused him of not really being for either party, Shivers replied: "You mean old Jerry Mann, the TCU football player? What ever happened to him?"

Mann played football at SMU—not TCU—and is a former attorney general.

ON THE OTHER hand, a group of Negro businessmen, professional men and lawyers met recently in Austin, the state capital, and voted 44-14 to support Kennedy.

PERPLEXED LONDON (UPI)—A soapbox orator at Hyde Park who bragged that he "knew everything" was asked "how many periods in a bottle of ink?" by a less-than-enthralled listener.

MOONSHINE CONSPIRACY GREENSBORO, N. C. (UPI)—Two former state park superintendents went on trial with five other men on charges of conspiring to set up a moonshine still inside the Reedy Creek State Park.

STOMACH TROUBLE HENDON, England (UPI)—Frank Wharton, 27, admitted he was the thief when an X-ray revealed a stolen ring in his stomach. The Negro leaders voted on a motion introduced by C. B. Bunkley Jr., of Dallas, who, at first, included only Kennedy's name in his motion. After some argument, Bunkley agreed to include Johnson's name.

THE NEGROES voted down a proposal not to endorse either ticket. Arguing for the proposal, J. L. Thomas of Bryan said: "The Democratic party promises you turkey and cranberry sauce but when you ask for chili and a cup of coffee, they refuse."

There are 214,000 Negro voters in Texas. Another question mark is the attitude of 700,000 Texans over 65, all eligible for poll tax exemptions. Voters under 65 have to pay $1.75 each to register.

PREFERS DANBURY JAIL CHICAGO (UPI)—Thomas Stovall, 31, waived a hearing Monday on charges of cashing a phony $30 check and requested permission to serve his sentence at the Federal Correction Institution at Danbury, Conn.

Stovall said the Danbury jail has a fine golf course and he has been able to sharpen up his game during three previous visits there.

He has been in jail here since May 1 on the bad check charge.

HOTTER INSIDE LONDON (UPI)—A local movie theater showing a nudist film is displaying this sign under its marquee: "It's hotter inside."

'But Don't Mention Paying for It'

This Side of The Sun

By Phat

Let's speak about golf. A word hard to rhyme. But here in Palm Springs, it's used all the time.

Fellow once told me that one word in the English language impossible to rhyme was "orange." Well, how about "golf?" Sure there's "gulf" but a lot of people don't pronounce it that way and, besides, why repeat? But, anyway to get back to today's agenda.

JAN LOTZ of the publicity department of the Chamber of Commerce just left a comprehensive 14-page sheaf of papers on my desk, listing things that are scheduled to happen in Palm Springs between now and next June.

It is a complete list, covering everything, sports events, big social gathering and detailing all of the openings except those of jackpots.

WHAT INTERESTED ME most was the list of golf tournaments and special events on the links. We always call this the Winter Golf Capital of the World and it looks as if we had a right to (if you'll pardon me landing on a preposition.)

Eleven golf courses are included in her listing, prepared under direction of Cliff Brown, publicity director, and between now and the end of June, 107 separate tournaments are scheduled.

THIS DOES NOT include twice weekly tournaments at one course for club members which would bring the list of play here up to the end of June to 147.

Days set aside for these tournaments total 337 for the nine-month period, more than there are days in that period.

Most of these tournaments are regular weekly club events at each golf club but there are also some big ones named.

THERE ARE TWELVE annual events taking in all of the golfers in the desert area and guests from outside. Eighteen of the events are Southern California and state-wide in their scope, two of them are national and with the Southland tournaments, draw wide newspaper publicity to the desert.

There are also eight tournaments sponsored by convention groups meeting here.

THE TWO NATIONAL events are the Fourth Annual United States Senior Open at Bermuda Dunes, Eldorado and La Quinta December 3 to 11 and the biggest of them all, the Palm Springs Golf Classic at Bermuda Dunes, Eldorado, Indian Wells, Tamarisk and Thunderbird February 1 to 5.

And of course, our own Palm Springs Senior Golf Association's two annual events, next month and in January which draw golfers from as far as New York.

THE LIST is a long one with most of the top pros and the best amateurs due here among the thousands who will be swatting the little white pellets between now and July.

See why we can truthfully lay claim to being the Winter Golf Capital of the World?

STAN DELAPLANE: Ballet of Death

The other night we went down to the antique section of Bahia, the Pelourinho Slope, to see the capoeira fighting.

It is the oldest part of this port town, the original capital of Brazil founded by the Portuguese in the early 1500s.

THE STREETS ARE cobbled with worn stones. The houses lean a little crookedly, pulled downhill by time and gravity.

It is a Negro section: a colorful, rather high smelling tenement district. (Negroes have social equality in Brazil. But they tend to gather in their own colonies. Their poverty seems to come from some lack of energy in this steamy, tropical climate.)

THE CAPOEIRA fighting was being held in a battered plank hall up a rickety flight of stairs. In the hallway downstairs there was a two chair barber shop. The chairs were like ordinary kitchen chairs with a foot rest.

We squeezed by the barber chairs and went up to the hall.

There was a small capoeira orchestra — this ballet type fighting is a stylized thing, done to a chanting African music.

THE INSTRUMENT is a birimbau. It is a five-foot wooden bow with a single steel string (arame de aço) strung on it like a bow string.

This bow string is plucked and struck with a small stick (the vaqueta).

AS HE STRIKES IT, the player holds in the same hand a box of seeds that make a rattling sound (the caixa). The bow has a gourd attached to one end (the cabaca). It seems to act as a sound box.

As he strikes the string, the birimbau player uses his bow-holding hand to press a large copper coin against the string. It changes the note. Something like the way the steel makes the notes on a Hawaiian steel guitar.

IT IS NOT VERY musical. But it has a samba beat and the players chant a little song as they play: "Eh, eh, eh, eh, eh, eh."

"We meet here in the brotherhood of the capoeira."

The fighters approach each other. One takes the attack part of the ballet. The other takes the defense.

CAPOEIRA — IT means "dust."

cloud. — is done with the feet. The capoeira attacker puts his hands on the ground and lashes out with his feet.

The defender may flip backwards on his hands and put out his feet in certain ways in defense.

IT IS DONE VERY slowly — a sort of slow motion. As though the ballet says: "This is the way it is done. If it were fast and in earnest, this is the way we would fight to the death."

After a while one of the fighters came over. His name was Vicente Ferreira Pastinha. He was 71 years old and he said that capoeira kept him young. He was the maestro of this school called "Capoeira Angola."

"Capoeira originated in Bahia. It was brought here by African slaves," he said. "It is very healthy and the movements are very beautiful."

"WHY DO THEY do it to music, maestro?" "From the time the slaves were imported, the Brazilian police have insisted that capoeira should not be done in earnest. It could be very dangerous fighting."

"But they let the slaves have the capoeira to music. And it has become a sort of fighting dance."

HE SAID THE capoeira fighters did not know in advance what each person would do — what fighting foot blow would be used. It was a matter of the attacker deciding what move to make; the defender deciding what defensive foot and body posture to counter with.

The school drew a good audience. Mostly small boys who watched intently and then got on the floor and kicked at each other. Just like the trained capoeira fighter-dancers.

MOUNT VERNON, N.Y. — Police Chief William McDonald, ordered to round up the pet ocelots, jaguars and snakes which the Town Council termed a menace.

Working All Angles

HOLLYWOOD — Anna Maria Alberghetti is working all the angles to jangle some beads and bangles in "Carnival," with Gower Champion directing.

Barrie Chase, who used to be the smile on Fred Astaire's face EXCLUSIVELY is now dating actor Jerry Barclay.

EX-Chicagoan Don McGuire producer of the Heanosey series, is departing for Europe after the show has had its run this season to set up a series to be shot in Switzerland. He'll also join the U. S. colony over there that's "sitting out its taxes."

NOTE FROM JOE E. Lewis: "I hear that Conrad Hilton is opening so many new motels, he's planning one for the lobby of the Beverly Hilton."

Plans to make an album of Stanley Holloway's "Laughs and Other Events" went down the drain when the one man show folded on Broadway after a puny eight performances. But the Mercury label is waxing one of another Broadway show, "An Evening with Mike Nichols and Elaine May."

Jim Arness and Dennis Weaver are planning to co-produce and co-star in a picture — NOT a Western! — when their Gunsmoke series sizzles off the beam. And it may be in the not-too-distant future.

ZAMIRA MENEHIN, Yehudi's daughter, will wed Fu Tsun Chinese concert pianist who quit Red China to live in London.

Debbie Reynolds and Harry Karl twod at Hollywood's Zebra Lounge. The tab was tax-deductible because it was a business thing: they caught Cannonball Adderley's Quintet, the jazz group that will appear on Debbie's special next Thursday (Oct. 27).

David Donaldson, age 33, signed to play the 70-year-old prospector in "The Outlaw Brothers" David's square name (when he's writing Bob Hope's new Hollywood Hills series instead of acting) is David D. Smith.

Georgia Skelton: "Why does Cary Grant always walk with a tilt?" Red Skelton: "I dunno — maybe he played slot machines as a kid."

HOTSTUFF — Producer Sam Bronston has been having "woman trouble" with "El Cid."

Charlton Heston's new picture, Ava Gardner was all set to play Heston's woman in the picture bowed out at the last minute when she decided his part was bigger than hers. Then director Tony Mann suggested his spouse, Sarita Montiel, for the role. Bronston refused. Huston backed him up — so now it looks like Sophia Loren. But Mann is pouting.

Macdonald Carey takes to the light — and — airy. He's joining the cast of "Birdman of Alcatraz" with Burt Lancaster.

THE SAGA OF Richard Cromwell, who died five weeks to the day after he learned he had cancer, was one of great courage and fortitude — and also of a "typically actorish" philosophy. Cromwell, a fine actor who hit his peak in Paramount's "Tolable David" and Columbia's "Loves of a Bengal Lancer," told his doctor, "I never wanted to live long anyway — I hate the thought of being an old man!"

Joe Mankiewicz has high hopes for "Justine," which will combine all four of the Laurence Durrell novels in one screenplay. His "dream cast": Lisa Taylor as Justine, Simone Signoret as Leila, and Laurence Olivier, Bill Holden, Laurence Harvey and Charles Laughton as their four leading men!

PRODUCERS Sam Spiegel and J. Arthur Rank are at WAR in London. They are both poised to shoot identical pictures about the late adventurer, T. E. Lawrence.

Sam has already sunk almost $500,000 into preparing "Lawrence of Arabia," with a script by Michael Wilson and David Lean, and claims it would be shooting now if Marlon Brando would give him a yes or no about starring.

Rank is ready, too, with "Ross," based on the same character, with Larry Harvey as star. Harvey, I might add, is quite an adventurer himself. He has fooled us all by posing as an Englishman all these years. He's really Lithuanian. And he's REALLY going to marry Joan Cohn, it seems. Her divorce from Harry Karl will be final Nov. 6.

JOHN WAYNE and Shirley MacLaine signed up to play "cameo" parts in Metro's Big One for 1961, "How the West Was Won." Clark Gable, Debbie Reynolds and Glenn Ford will also appear in the star-studded salute to the Early West.

A pal asked Bob Hope if he would attend the openings of those rival Emperors of Insult, Don Rickles and Jack E. Leonard, on the same night. "Nope," said Bob. "I'll stay home with the wife and kids and get insured."

Remember When...

OCTOBER 21, 1950

A total of 3,650 Villagers will be eligible to go to the polls at the general election Nov. 7, County Clerk G. A. Pequegnat reported today.

Men's and women's rest rooms at the fire station have been completed. It was announced at this week's City Council meeting. One councilman inquired, "Will there be a formal opening?"

Variety was the keynote at the Palm Springs Police Station over the weekend and Chief August G. Kettmann, just back from the convention at Colorado Springs, Colo., had to order extra mattresses for the men's jail to accommodate the entries.

OCTOBER 21, 1940

All Palm Springs police officers, from Chief Norman Harstad to the most recently appointed rookie, began wearing neat looking new stars this week. Gold, with blue enamel lettering, the new badges replace the old-type, cumbersome and homely shields which local policemen formerly carried. The change is in line with the "streamlining" of uniforms of the Village stalwarts.

One of the most important pieces of news in many a month is the report today of the sale of the large and beautiful Humphrey Birge estate in the south section to Jackson Hardy, former owner of the Casitas del Monte, and revelation of plans for its transformation into a luxury hotel.

Supervisors Tab Berkey For Highways

Subcommittee Job Goes to Desert Area Supervisor

Supervisor George V. Berkey has been appointed, by the County Supervisors Association of California, to serve as chairman of the Highway Advisory Committee's Subcommittee to Screen Proposals to Amend Streets and Highway Code.

Riverside County's second appointee is Ray T. Sullivan, Jr., County Counsel.

OTHER MEMBERS of the committee are Spencer Williams, County Counsel, Santa Clara County; John Heinrich, County Counsel, Sacramento County; R. P. O'Neill, Director of Public Works, Butte County; E. R. Hanna, Road Commissioner, San Benito County and Martin Nicholas, Road Commissioner, San Bernardino County.

The first meeting of this committee will be held at Palm Springs during the annual meeting of the County Supervisors Association, November 16, 17, 18.

OTHER GROUPS attending this annual meeting include County Engineers Association, County Personnel Administrators Association and Administrative Officers Advisory Committee.

It is anticipated that 1,000-1,100 persons will participate in this 3-day annual conference. Headquarters will be located at the El Mirador Hotel.

County Yields Deed to Roadway

Proceedings for a road abandonment hearing set for Oct. 31 on an undeveloped road through the O'Connor Date Gardens west of Indio were abandoned this week and a quitclaim deed for the road easement was granted Ellen E. O'Connor, owner of the ranch.

The Board of Supervisors authorized execution of the deed on recommendation of County Counsel Ray Sullivan who observed that the easement has never been used by the county and the road is not needed.

SUPPRESSION RAP HITS WHITE HOUSE

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Chairman J. William Fulbright, (D-Ark.) of the Senate Foreign Relations Committee today accused the White House of suppressing foreign policy documents which might hurt the election chances of Vice President Richard M. Nixon.

Fulbright charged that the administration was deliberately withholding from the public two major groups of documents: The text of Nixon's conversations with Soviet Premier Nikita Khrushchev in Russia last year and evaluation reports by the U. S. Information Agency on American prestige abroad.

ASKED BY A NEWSMAN if he believed the White House had ordered suppression of the records "for partisan political purposes," Fulbright replied: "That is my conclusion."

In regard to USIA reports on American prestige abroad, Fulbright said the only conclusion he could draw was that this country's standing overseas was "worse" than before or at the same level described by administration spokesmen in congressional hearings earlier this year.

Fulbright accused the administration of violating bipartisanship in foreign policy. He warned at a news conference that if Nixon won the election, Democrats in Congress would not forget the "deception."

UNICEF Art Fete Has Tickets as Student Prizes

A UNICEF art contest at Nellie Coffman Junior High School to select the best interpretation of a UNICEF theme is being held this week in observance of United Nations week in Palm Springs.

A panel of art experts will judge the entries and the winner will receive two tickets to the Marais and Miranda benefit concert at the high school on Saturday evening. Second prize will be two invitations to the flag raising ceremony and United Nations luncheon in the Center on Monday. Winning entries will be on display in the foyer of the high school the evening of the concert.

A United Nations assembly will be held at the Junior High on Friday and the climax of student participation will take place on Halloween when there will be a UNICEF dance at the Youth Center.

'BONUS' PENALTY FOR VILLAGER WHO ASSAULTED OFFICER

Willie Louis Gilmore will probably think twice before he decides to test a Palm Springs Police officer's pugilistic abilities in the future.

Gilmore, 25, was handed a six month jail sentence yesterday by Justice Judge Eugene Theriault for assaulting a police officer who attempted to arrest him for reckless driving last month.

The 200-pound, 6-foot 3-inch Gilmore, who changed a not guilty plea to guilty in court, also received a "bonus" sentence before Judge Theriault finished with him, 30 additional days in jail on the reckless driving charge.

Fulbright said he had called USIA Director George Allen on the telephone Wednesday night to seek the release of reports on American prestige abroad.

But he said Allen claimed that the material was "privileged matter" and would not be made public. Fulbright and Allen admitted there had been "full liaison" with the White House on the refusal to release the records.

FULBRIGHT SAID that Nixon and other top members of the Republican administration are "fully aware" of what the prestige reports contain. But he said he doubted whether Sec. John F. Kennedy, the Democratic presidential nominee, could get access to the same information "at least not until after Nov. 8."

At that point, another reporter asked Fulbright if he thought the withholding of the documents was a deliberate attempt "to deceive the American people."

"That is my impression," Fulbright replied.

NEW LODGE OPENS WITH OPEN HOUSE FOR THE CITIZENRY

DESERT HOT SPRINGS—An 11-unit desert lodge, the new Ma Yah owned and operated by Mr. and Mrs. Nat Bertram, was opened here Sunday with an informal open house.

The lodge located at 68-11, Calle Las Palmas features all-electric units, two sun decks, a U-shaped lavit, and hi-fi piped into each unit, the Bertrams report.

With two filtered pools, a swimming pool, and its own hot mineral well, the lodge is keyed to the spa resort setting here. The units are decorated in oyster white, blue and gold. The lobby and recreation area feature piano and television to give an informal atmosphere to the 6,700 square foot development.

FOR AMATEUR GARDENERS interested in pursuing their hobby during the cold weather, a window garden is the perfect answer. It provides space for colorful house plants and also larger flowers or seed flats to be transplanted outside later. Built in a south-facing picture window or window wall, the garden receives ample natural light and warmth from the sun.

WINDOW GARDEN AID TO INDOORS

Amateur gardeners who are reluctant to put aside their favorite hobby during cold-weather months are finding built-in window gardens a perfect outlet for their "green thumb" talents.

Ideally suited for today's open plan houses where the large glass areas let in plenty of daylight and warmth, an indoor garden is a fine place to grow the usual variety of colorful house plants. They are also particularly handy for starting larger flowers and sizeable seed flats destined for spring transplanting in outdoor beds.

SINCE THE AREA which can be devoted to an indoor flower bed will vary with each home, its size and shape become a matter of customizing to suit individual conditions. However, regardless of the dimensions, indoor flower beds fall into two basic classes—those built above the floor, and the more elaborate sunken type.

According to Ralph Sherwin, chief designer for a glass firm, above-the-floor units are simple to build and work well into remodeling projects since they do not make it necessary to change the floor structure. Sunken planting boxes with the soil level even with the floor, are provided with adequate drainage and waterproofed to protect adjoining wood work. Somewhat more complicated to make, this type is best included when the house is being built.

In view of the fact that the majority of popular plants, including such favorites as tulips, hyacinths and lilies, flourish in sunny spots, a south wall is probably the best all-round location for an indoor flower garden.

"WITH MODERN HOMES being built to catch the heat of the winter sun through large areas of Thermopane insulating glass on the south wall, this elevation becomes an ideal place for a planting box," Mr. Sherwin pointed out. "The flowers receive ample sunlight and yet are protected from the cold."

One pleasing effect which can be gained by the use of an indoor garden, is to build it adjoining a flower bed outside the window. This gives the appearance that the garden continues in an unbroken indoor-outdoor pattern. In places where picture windows or window walls do not extend all the way to the floor, the same effect can be achieved by placing a window box on the floor and hanging another outside at the same level.

"THE PRIMARY PURPOSE of a window garden is to add a touch of color to the room and at the same time create a pleasant setting when viewed through the window," Mr. Sherwin said. "For this reason some care should be taken to see that flowers are properly arranged so they become attractive from both indoors and out. It's always a good rule of thumb to keep any varieties which grow tall and bushy off to one side and away from the glass. Although pretty they can spoil the view and block a lot of sunlight if planted in the center of the window."

Safety Council Tip Could Save Baby

CHICAGO, Ill.—Here are some tips from the National Safety Council that could save a life—your baby's!

They cover subjects ranging from baby's bath to biting crib bars.

THEY'RE DESIGNED to help wipe out accidents—No. 1 killer of persons 1-24 years of age.

Baby's bath—always check water temperature to prevent scalding. Watch out for hot faucets. Never leave baby alone in the bath. Forget the phone or the doorbell when you're busy with baby.

Toys—choose them for safety. Give baby sturdy rattles, brightly colored objects hung in view, large soft colored balls and push-pull toys with rounded edges. Stuffed animals or dolls make good toys for baby, as long as they don't have hard button eyes that can be pulled loose and swallowed.

IN THE CRIB—no pillow. Make sure the bars are up and locked when baby's in the crib, and that crib and window sills are coated with lead-free paint. Beware of thin plastic mattress covers.

"When baby graduates from the crib to the floor, clear it of all obstacles. Don't leave things around he can get hurt on," the Council advised. One of the main hazards:

Poisons—tots will taste anything, even poisons. Are any of these items—all potential killers—within a child's reach in your home: aspirin, iodine, perfume, nail polish remover, drain cleaners, match heads, shoe polish or kerosene?

"MANY POISONOUS substances," the Council emphasized, "have a delayed reaction and may not produce symptoms for some time after they're swallowed. Don't wait for symptoms to develop—administer first aid and call a doctor."

"Young children need constant protection," it said.

Home Sales To Rise, Says BCA Head

Building Leader Refutes Prediction Of Looming Drop

LOS ANGELES—Home sales in Southern California will soon take a sharp upturn, Don N. Schneider, president of the Building Contractors Association of California, has advised Norman P. Mason, Housing and Home Finance Agency Administrator, in a letter in which the local building leader countered recently published statements that housing sales are due to decline.

Public interest in new homes is even greater than at this same time last year, Schneider asserted.

HE CITED A substantial increase in the number of paid admissions to see the model home exhibited by the association at the Los Angeles County Fair last month as evidence of his contention.

"When over 57,000 people pay to inspect a model home, there is no doubt in my mind that the market for housing is sound, that the public is seriously considering purchasing new homes," Schneider declared.

Conditions are unusually favorable for home buyers at the present time, Schneider said. Ample financing exists and labor and materials are in plentiful supply, he noted.

THE BCA PRESIDENT pointed out that population analysts have predicted a record family formation period beginning in 1962 which will strain the facilities of the construction industry in providing sufficient housing.

"Families who can purchase new homes before this great demand matures will gain an appreciable economic advantage in their purchase over those who wait," he asserted.

Employment Up—But Not Enough

SACRAMENTO (AP)—Employment has increased and the number of persons without jobs has decreased, but not enough for this time of year, two state officials said today.

John F. Henning, director of industrial relations, reported that September employment in California was 3,242,000, an all-time record. It represents an increase of 70,000 jobs from August and 146,000 over the same month last year.

DO-IT-YOURSELF COFFEE came early to Palm Desert Tuesday, as Duke Wild, partner in contracting firm working on novel new snack spot, joined in coffee cup toast with Jim Beresford, who will operate the "Carnival" luncheon spot in the end site of the Welcome-Kite building addition, and Ed Welcome, co-developer. The "Carnival" will feature "do-it-yourself" cuisine for people with a knack for culinary creations; even coffee and tea may be prepared to individual tastes. "But of course the Carnival will offer well-rounded buffet and special order meals," Beresford said. New Welcome-Kite addition doubles original 9,400 square footage in building, Welcome said. Some units will be complete next week. (Desert Sun Photo).

GARDENING IN THE DESERT

All Nightblooming Plants Not Alike

We have received many inquiries about Nightblooming Jasmine. Nightblooming Cereus has occasionally been pointed out to us as Jasmine; actually it is an entire plant whose bloom is confined to but one display a year. The true Nightblooming Jasmine owes its origin to the West Indies and boasts of a family of 150 species.

Long after sundown its star-like blooms open and emit a pleasant aroma that permeates the atmosphere for yards around. It is unwise to root this plant too near a bedroom or living room window. Its aroma, if indulged in for a lengthy period might become nauseating to some people. After its blooming berries appear in their stead, these may be used to add an unusual note to your indoor bouquets.

A FEW WORDS TO Mr. Amateur Gardener about Rose Culture: preparation of soil, etc., might come in handy. Preparation of basins for roses is very important, if your sandy soil has no stones that have to be eliminated you may consider yourself lucky.

First, dig a basin about eight inches or even ten inches, soak it two or three times, and after the water has leached through put a bed of wetted peatmoss and leaf mold at the bottom. The reason of this mixture is to materially lessen the leaching of water, thereby maintaining a damp bed around the planted roots when they are surrounded by soil.

WHEN ORDERING roses from your nurseryman—don't order too many, leave room for some bare-root roses in January—have him cut the sides of the cans so you will be able to handle the roots without disturbing the soil in which they have grown. After transplanting the roses from the can to their new homes fill in around the rooted rose with prepared soil, tamping it solid all the time while the water is slowly feeding the basin.

If these instructions are followed there should be no gap. Don't be in a hurry to spread any fertilizer for at least three weeks; a layer of wetted peatmoss for lessening evaporation is about all you'll need together with the water. When this period is over a good rose food should be spread slightly below the surface and four inches away from the main trunk. A very slight sprinkle of Iron Sulphate is helpful.

IF YOU CONTEMPLATE using the bare root roses that will be available in January and early February dig a fairly deep bed in which to prepare the soil. Peatmoss, humus or steer manure mixed in your own soil and religiously dampened every two days for the next six weeks should suffice.

The bud union of roses should never be out of sight. If it is about half covered there is little to worry about but the bud unions should be slightly above the soil.

Now that the thermometers are staying well below the 100 mark our water bills should be going lower and lower, for which we are duly thankful. By the way, when feeding roses a cupful to each plant is sufficient. —T.G.M.

BERKEY ASKS SIGNS WARNING VIOLATOR OF DUMPING RULES

A proposal by Supervisor William Jones that "No Dumping" signs be erected in county areas other than at public dumps where debris is now bailed. Illegally deposited was referred by the Board of Supervisors this week to the road department for consideration.

"That's a good idea," agreed Supervisor George Berkey, "particularly along roads leading to county dumps. Some people just don't seem to make it all the way to the dump."

Glass Came First

The first industrial enterprise in America was the manufacture of glass by members of Capt. John Smith's colonizing group in 1607.

Lowest in Upkeep

Glass, which is virtually impervious to wear and corrosion, has probably the lowest upkeep cost of any material used in home construction.

Coveys Named NPS Delegates To County Meet

NORTH PALM SPRINGS — The North Palm Springs Chamber of Commerce appointed Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Covey, representative to the Riverside County Association of Chambers of Commerce during the regularly scheduled meeting Tuesday evening, Mrs. A. Harvey Anderson announced.

Covey has been named to the Park and Recreation Committee of the county group. A feature of the meeting was a report from the Chamber delegation to the Saturday water problems meeting called in Palm Springs by Rep. D. S. Saund (D-29th Dist.). J. G. Dever, chairman of the committee headed the report.

Named to a committee to study local problems, including water supply problems, were J. L. Meek, committee chairman; J. G. Dever, and Walter Lawrence. Under study is formation of service district to aid the problem, possibly obtain increased water main capacities and reduction in fire insurance rates, Mrs. Anderson said.

ALMANAC

Today is Friday Oct. 21, the 295th day of the year with 71 more in 1960.

The moon is approaching its first quarter.

The morning star is Mars.

The evening stars are Venus, Jupiter and Saturn.

On this day in history:

In 1772, British poet Samuel Coleridge was born.

In 1814, the U.S. government bought the personal library of Thomas Jefferson to replace the Library of Congress burned by the British on Jan. 30.

In 1833, Swedish chemist and engineer Alfred Nobel was born.

In 1879, Thomas Edison invented a workable electric incandescent lamp.

In 1907, the New ork premiere of the Merry Widow took place at the Amsterdam Theatre.

In 1944, Aachen became the first large German city to fall to Allied hands.

Thought for today: English poet Samuel Coleridge said: "Experience informs us that the first defense of weak minds is to re-erminate."

Jameson Aide Denies Saund Money Rap

Claims Republican Candidate Only Got $1,000 for Campaign

"The 29th District incumbent Congressman has charged that Charles Jameson, his Republican opponent, is receiving $15,000 from the Republican Congressional Committee," Jameson's West Riverside County chairman Art Lester said today. "We wish it were true, but the fact is, no such sum is coming from anyone, and none is expected."

"As a matter of fact, we have received exactly $1,000 from the Republican Congressional Committee," Lester said.

"MOST OF THE contributors to Jameson's campaign are just ordinary citizens of the 29th District who are tired of being 'misrepresented' in Washington by a prima donna who spends most of his time working for his own glory," Lester said.

"On the other hand," he continued, "we have it on good authority that the present incumbent's largest contributor is the Voluntary Fund of the Riverside County Central Labor Council. It is in fact well known that this source is providing as much as half of the incumbent's campaign expenses, plus workers whose services are supposedly 'voluntary.'"

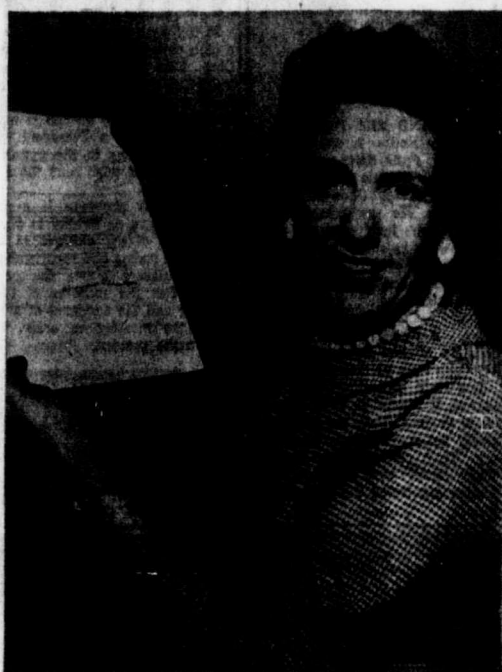

"A CHECK OF the incumbent's past contribution reports, which are required by law, shows that labor union voluntary funds have been a main source of his campaign monies, so there is little reason to believe this isn't so in this election also."

"It is ironic that the Congressman in a predominately agricultural district such as this one is should turn his back on the farmer, and vote the straight labor ticket when he gets to Washington."

"Charles Jameson," Lester pointed out, "is supported by no single large pressure group such as the incumbent is. And this is the way he wants it. That means, simply, that when he is elected to Congress, he will be under no obligations to large pressure groups, so will be able to once again bring real representation to all the people of the District."

In my sixth grade class we have a club called the Young Americans Club. Miss Brannan, our teacher, taught us all about democracy. We have elections in which we say speeches and have campaign managers. We elect a President who runs our meeting in the morning, Vice President who runs the Friday program.

The Friday program is a program we have on Friday in which one fourth of the children in the room give poems and reports about lots of different things. The secretary writes the minutes of the meeting and the sergeant at arms keeps the meeting in order. We even make posters.

Houk to Run Club Himself

By OSCAR FRALEY
United Press International

NEW YORK (UP) — The husky, square-shouldered man appeared to be bantering but there was a grim note in the undertone of his voice.

"In my outfit," said Ralph Houk, "all you had to do was stay alive and you might become a general."

He was talking about the bloody World War II days when he rose from private to major in the Rangers.

RALPH HOUK STAYED alive through such stories as Omaha Beach, the defense of the Maginot Line and the Battle of the Bulge. Wounded by shrapnel, he received the Purple Heart and the Silver and Bronze Stars.

Yet, in a way, he might have been speaking about how he became manager of the Yankees at 41, succeeding the fired Casey Stengel. In the Yankee outfit he had "stayed alive" and had gone on to become the field general.

"Managing the Yankees has been a goal of mine for a long time," he admitted openly as his appointment was announced. "I've had opportunities to manage other big league clubs but I knew that some day Casey would have to retire and I kept hoping I'd get this job."

THIS PAST SEASON, when Stengel was ill, Houk managed the club for 10 days and compiled a 6-6 record. There were those who breathed a sigh of relief when Stengel returned and the club went on a big winning streak to finally clinch the pennant. But those close to the club feel it was changes which Houk instituted which prepared the way for the winning drive. Yet he takes no credit.

Still it is only human that Houk wanted to run a club of his own, preferably the Yankees.

"There was a possibility two years ago and I could have had a manager's job last year," he explained. "But I waited. Still, I don't think any urgency to keep me in the organization was the reason why Stengel was forced out."

STENGEL INFERRED, after being fired, that he had refused even a remote possibility of remaining because the Yankees intended to run the ball club from the front office.

"Take it from me," Houk bit off. "I'm no 'yes man.' I'm going to run this ball club on the field. Nobody else."

You can believe it. And also that the players will be solidly behind the "Major." They have a tremendous respect for him and, as one said, "he's not the kind of a guy you fool with."

Houk knows the game and he has a reputation for acting with lightning rapidity. He is, after all, a man who made quick decisions under fire and there is no reason to believe that baseball could strip him of that ability.

L.A. Continues Quest For 1968 Olympiad

LOS ANGELES — (UP) — The Southern California Committee for the Olympic Games Thursday voted to press on in its quest to bring the 1968 Olympiad to Los Angeles.

PHIL HARRIS, radio and TV star, and three golfing pals tested their skill on the Palm Springs Golf Course this week. Syracuse Favored to Climb In Grid Rating Tomorrow

By DICK JOYCE
United Press International

Iowa and Mississippi, the country's top-rated teams, will be hard-pressed to retain their rankings from 1969 national champion Syracuse when college football once again captures the spotlight on Saturday.

Iowa, present kingpin of the powerful Western Conference which boasts four of America's top 10 teams and seven of the first 16, is a one-point favorite to lead Purdue at home. The Buckeyes are undefeated in four starts and were voted the No. 1 team in the most recent balloting of the United Press International Board of Coaches.

PURDUE IS RATED eighth and will rely on its size and power to offset Iowa's eye-dazzling speed. Mississippi is also a nine-point favorite against an equally unpredictable foe in Arkansas. The Razorbacks upset Texas by one point last week and have lost only to undefeated Baylor in five games. They also will have the advantage of their home stadium. Ole Miss has won five games without a defeat, its last conquest coming over Tulane.

Syracuse has twice come within a bad bounce of defeat, but should have no difficulty in running roughshod over winless West Virginia. It would take nothing short of a football massacre to satisfy the pride of last year's national champions.

MAJOR CONTESTS which are rated close to even by the odds-makers include the traditional battle for the Little Brown Jug between Michigan and Minnesota, the Southwest Conference game between Rice and Texas and the intersectional meetings of Pittsburgh-Texas Christian and Illinois-Penn State.

Although Minnesota is ranked fifth and Michigan 16th, the Wolverines now are favored by 1½ points to win this 51st contest of a bitter rivalry at Ann Arbor. Michigan was lucky in getting a 14-7 decision from Northwestern last week while Minnesota defeated Illinois, 21-10, to maintain its perfect record.

Texas, which has won three games by shutouts but was beaten the two times its defense was broken, is a one-point underdog in the night game at Houston. Rice has won three of four, including a 47-0 romp over Southern Methodist last week.

Pittsburgh, loaded with potential, finally broke a frustrating slump last Saturday with a 42-0 victory over West Virginia and is a two-point pick at Fort Worth. TCU fought to a 14-14 tie with Texas A&M in its last outing.

ILLINOIS HAS SPLIT its four games and is picked by a point against a Penn State squad that came within feet of upsetting Syracuse last week.

Fourth-ranked Navy proved its class against the Air Force Academy last Saturday and is tabbed by a solid 21 points over Pennsylvania; sixth-ranked Missouri and seventh-ranked Baylor are two-touchdown picks over Iowa State and Texas A&M, respectively; ninth-ranked Washington is a prohibitive favorite over Oregon State; and tenth-ranked Ohio State is a one-touchdown choice against Wisconsin.

Stanford Has Hopes Of Upsetting Bruins

United Press International
Jack Curtice's bedraggled Stanford Indians have a way of catching fire when they reach the sixth game of a season and UCLA, an 18-point choice to win Saturday night's game in Los Angeles, might do well to be on guard.

In 1968, the Indians lost four out of five and then trimmed the Bruins, 21-19. Last year they had dropped another four out of five, headed for Los Angeles like babes in the wood, and made mighty Southern California battle to pull out a 30-28 decision.

NOW STANFORD has lost all five of its games and looks like a setup for the Bruins who lost a 10-8 tangle to Washington last week. Curtice isn't even telling jokes right now. So another nerve-buster could be in the works this Saturday night.

Other leading games pit Washington and Oregon State at Portland, Oregon and California at California, College of the Pacific at Washington State and San Jose State at Arizona State.

The big question at Stanford is whether Curtice will start Dick Norman, the best passer in the nation last year, or Rod Sears who has looked sharper in recent outings. The Bruins are all set with Bill Kilmer, their sharp tailback and number one tosser.

Desert Valley League Starts Play Tonight

Tribe Hosts Indio in Opener

Picked to finish second in the Desert Valley League which starts action today, Palm High Indians entertain Indio's Rajah's at 8 p.m. on the home field in the first game.

DVL coaches got together Wednesday and came up with their opinions on the results of this year's football race, the second in the loop's history. It is a full six-team league this year. In its first year, Indio's games did not count in the standing. They do this year.

COACHELLA VALLEY'S Arabs were the unanimous choice to repeat this year. They won last year's DVL initial championship and had won the title in the now defunct Riverside County League the year before.

THE INDIANS nosed out Banning by one point in the voting for second place. Banning was third choice Yucaipa, fourth, Indio, fifth and Twentynine Palms, sixth.

THE TRIBE was favored to win over Indio tonight by a slight edge but coach Dick Bunting of the local squad, was not so sure. Indio has two of the league's finest backfield prospects to field against the Indians in quarterback Gary Kretz and fullback Ken Crabtree. The former was hampered by injuries earlier this season but is reported back in form as a dangerous passer.

Two of the Indian's backfield men, Butch Harmon and Tony Gomez, are recovering from injuries and may not see action tonight.

LLOYD GAUFF is the key man on the Tribe offense as fullback while Dag Duran will start at quarterback. Jim Hill will be in one halfback spot and the other depends on how injuries have mended.

Bunting's biggest problem is depth. With only a small squad to work with he can pick eleven good men to start but after that has to hope that injuries or illness won't cut them down.

GAME TIME tonight on the home field in the first Desert Valley League game, is 8 o'clock.

A large crowd is expected to be on hand and the Palm Springs Indian Boosters club will be out in force.

Coachella's Arabs host Twentynine Palms and Banning meets Yucaipa at the University of Redlands field in the other DVL games tonight.

Jayvees Down Indio 20-9.

Durocher Still In Running as Giants' Pilot

TOKYO — (UP) — The San Francisco Giants still are interested in Leo Durocher.

Giants' owner Horace Stoneham said Thursday that the former manager was "definitely not out of the picture, but our first considerations are two men still in baseball."

Most San Francisco sportswriters had discounted the Lip's chances when the Giants' front office said it was thinking in terms of two men under contract to other clubs.

STONEHAM SAID he was not at liberty to identify the prospects without permission of their clubs. He said no decision would be made until the Giants finish their barnstorming tour of Japan.

The Giants arrived here Thursday for a post-season tour.

Stoneham said Stengel's dismissal by the Yankees "surprised me."

"But once we've chosen our man, the decision will be made public quickly," he said.

THE GUESSING GAME has included Durocher, ex-Yankee manager Casey Stengel, Yogi Berra, Bob Scheffing, Paul Richards, Alvin Dark, Lefty O'Doul, Red Davis and Tommy Heath.

Stoneham predicted that Tom Sheehan, who succeeded Bill Rigney as Giants manager when their pennant hopes folded, would return to his old job as head scout when a permanent manager was named.

The Giants' owner, making his second trip to Japan, expressed an interest in signing up Japanese pros with his American team.

"There are several Japanese players we have heard about and are anxious to see," he said.

Swing and Sway Golf Class Now In Two Divisions

Zeil Eaton, pro manager at the Palm Springs Municipal Golf course, said today that the Swing and Sway golf class for women at the Links so far exceeded expectations that it has been divided into two groups.

Originally scheduled for Tuesday mornings, it is now held on Monday and Tuesday mornings at 9:15. At the first class, 36 women turned out.

Under sponsorship of the City Recreation Department and the golf course, women are given free instructions in golf by Eaton and his aides at 9:15 a.m. Immediately following the class, they may receive a bucket of golf balls and a nine-hole round for a $2 fee.

It is part owner.

"It made me mad every time. I looked at that sign after Casey was unceremoniously fired," said Carl H. Wiggens, vice president of the bank.

Board Chairman Jack Lawson added:

"There's no age limit for our officers, directors or customers."

FURTHER CHANGES are believed coming in the New York Yankee organization with George Weiss, general manager, slated to be kicked upstairs to chairman of the board and succeeded by Roy Hamer.

Houk Takes Over As Yankee Boss

NEW YORK (UP) — Ralph Houk stepped into his new job as manager of the New York Yankees today with the quiet assurances that "I'm the boss and the club will go on winning."

The first change indicated by the 41-year-old new boss of the American League champions was the possibility of some coaching switches. Houk is understood to have hired ex-Yankee Hank Bauer as one of his coaches.

"This club isn't going to drop dead," the ruggedly handsome Houk told reporters. "How can a team with Mickey Mantle, Roger Maris and Bill Skowron drop dead? It's going to go on winning."

HOUK THEN USED the words employed only 49 hours earlier by Casey Stengel, when the 70-year-old pilot who had led the Yankees to 10 pennants in 12 years was axed, to describe his position:

"For your information," he said, "I'm no yes man."

Stengel had implied at Tuesday's press conference that the front office had tried to interfere with his handling of the club. Co-owner Dan Topping has said he fails to understand what Stengel was talking about.

Houk, a native of Lawrence, Kan., who has the poise of a fellow who rose from private to major in the Rangers and fought at the Bulge and Bastogne, made a strong impression at his first press conference as the "boss."

Blaze Hanover To Race Today

INGLEWOOD (UP) — Six horses including Blaze Hanover, winner of the Hambletonian, raced today in Hollywood Park's $6,000 Long Beach Trot at a mile and one-sixteenth.

Battling Blaze Hanover were Record Mat, Darn Safe, Demon Damsel, Charming Barbara and Carol Rodney.

Wayzac won Thursday's Nick Adams Pace at Hollywood, defeating Troy Hedgewood in the stretch. Deep Adios was third. Wayzac's victory was worth $16 to backers. Time for the mile was 2:02.

Salton City Plans Show on Sunday

SALTON CITY — Skydiver Rozanne Rogers will feature a celebration here Sunday when this community opens two miles of canals.

She will parachute 7,000 feet into Salton Sea during the ceremonies starting at 1:15 p.m.

A dynamite blast will level a dyke and 113 million gallons of water are expected to flow into the canal beds filling them to a depth of 15 feet.

Brown Eases Up on Training for Battle

LOS ANGELES — (UP) — Lightweight champion Joe Brown didn't work out today because his trainer Bill Gore says he's in near peak condition for his fight next Friday night against Cisco Andrade.

Roberts Over for Two TDs

Ray Roberts scored two touchdowns and Ernie Reyes one and converted twice as Palm Springs Jayvees opened the Desert Valley League Junior Varsity schedule with a 20 to 9 win over Indio Jayvees at the Date Bowl in Indio Friday night.

It was the first game in the JV schedule for the 1960 season. Dopers have it that the Papoose outfit will win the title.

THE SCORING last night boosted Roberts' point total in four games this year to 66, 11 touchdowns, five in one game.

Ernie Reyes with his TD and two PATs last night is second in the point derby with 17, two TDs and five PATs.

Cal Farley's Paposes were in command most of the game and the absence of three starters and four reserves, benched by ineligible rules, did not hamper his team.

YUCAIPA'S JAYVEES, who oppose Palm Springs there on November 3, gave indication that they will be up in the race when they defeated the Bronco Babes at Banning last night 14 to 6.

Next league game for the Farley band is against Banning on the home lot.

Yankees, Orioles Put Three Each On All-AL Team

NEW YORK — (UP) — Bill Skowron, Mickey Mantle and Roger Maris, the musclemen who led the New York Yankees to a new league mark of 193 homers, were named today to the United Press International's 1960 American League All-Star team.

The Baltimore Orioles, who challenged the Yankees for the pennant until the final two weeks of the season, were also honored with three selections: shortstop Ran Hansen, third baseman Brooks Robinson and pitcher Chuck Estrada.

Also named to the team of eight regulars and two pitchers by the UPI's board of AL experts were catcher Earl Battey of the Washington Senators, outfielder Minnie Minofo of the Chicago White Sox and pitcher Jim Perry of the Cleveland Indians.

DESERT BRAEMAR

Director's Return Is Expected

Braemar director Norman Phillips and wife are reported due any day after a summer spent in Europe including a trip to Rome, Italy. Former footballer All American Eddie Caw and Mrs. Caw, whose home is in Oakland, are here for an extended stay.

The Frank Walters have spend several weekends here during the fall and will also establish later. Mr. and Mrs. Eric Gibean have been here for several weeks.

Former President John Galbraith, whose home was in Tacoma, Wash., and who died June 15 is greatly missed at Braemar. He acquitted himself nobly during the early years of this project. His wife, Ruth, recently visited relatives in Minneapolis and is returning to Braemar shortly. She plans extensive travel.

Helen Walker is here for the season having opened her large deluxe apartment on Circle Serene. Fred and Catherine Wines are also here for the season after leaving their home in Tacoma, Wash., enjoying a trip through Western Canada points and the San Juan Islands, driving south along the No. 101 Highway, the coast route.

Elizabeth Summerbell is also enjoying her desert home here for the season. The Heinie Schmidts of Redondo Beach opened their Circle Serene apartment, and are entertaining their daughter and son-in-law and three grandsons for the weekend. They spent the summer at Colorado Springs, Colo., horsebacking and golfing. He is a former international golfer of note.

Shooting for Space

FARMINGDALE, N. Y. (UPI) — Scientists are taking a new model of the old-fashioned air gun into space laboratories today. A high-speed hydrogen gun is used in a Republic Aviation Corp. test chamber to fire tiny projectiles at experimental space vehicles. The plastic projectiles simulate the effect of meteoroid strikes in space, permitting scientists to gauge such effects in shaping the vehicles.

Pathfinder Plans Fashion Show

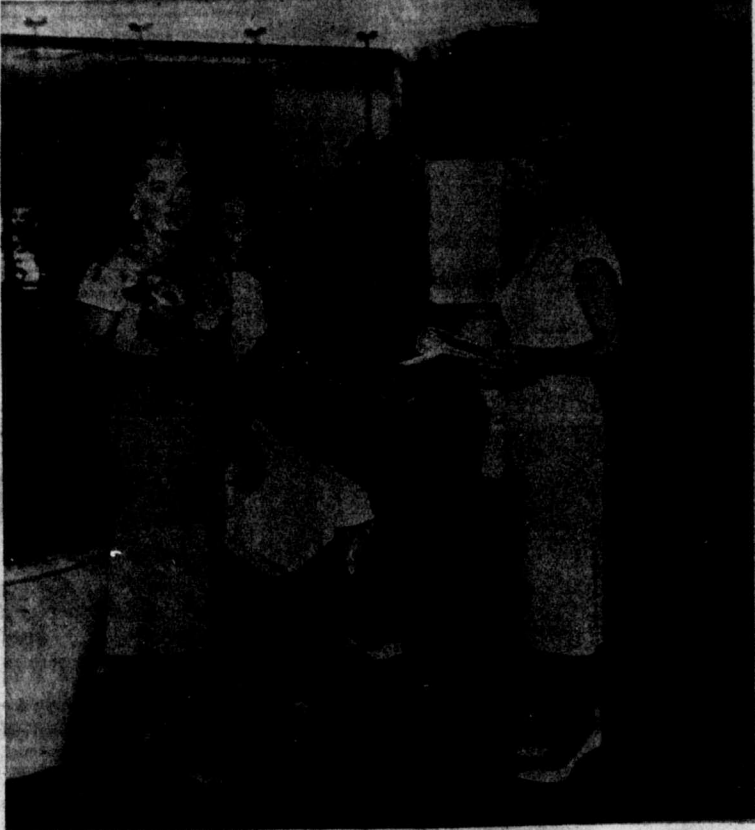

Invitations to Palm Springs Pathfinder's Peggy Hunt fashion show luncheon went out this week. The show, which will be held in the newly redecorated Thunderbird Country Club house on November 19, will necessarily be limited to 300, and reservations will be honored in the order received, according to Mrs. George Gannon, reservations chairman. This will be the first and last public event at Thunderbird this season, and is being presented through the courtesy of Saks Fifth Avenue.

Pathfinder's first vice president, Mrs. William B. Malouf, who heads the social events committee for the year, is luncheon chairman, with Mrs. Joseph Froggatt as her co-chairman.

In addition a social events committee, composed of Mesdames Fred Albertson, Randolph Christie, Joseph Hale, Kenneth Kirk, John Q. McClure, Edward Rothbart and Edgar Schill, has been appointed by the board to work with Pathfinder on this special project. This is a new policy which will be used for other special events, Pathfinder president Mrs. S. P. Manasse said today. "Pathfinder does not have a general membership, only 20 board members, and wishing to make use of the assistance of other interested women, who have been chosen from a list of more than 100 sponsors, we have created a social events committee."

Proceeds from the fashion show luncheon, Pathfinder's first project for the year, will be used in their scholarship fund for scientists, for the Boys' Club, and for the Child Care Fund this organization has established with Welfare and Friendly Aid. All money raised by Pathfinder is used locally for juvenile needs. The social events committee will meet with the board at a noon luncheon at Thunderbird on Monday, October 31, to complete plans for the fashion show.

Board members are Mesdames Walter Braunschweiger, Clarence Brown, Walter Brunmark, Earl Buckingham, John Costello, William Crawford, John Dawson, Edwin Fallgren, Joseph Froggatt Jr., George Gannon, Earl Henderson, Victor Hugo-Vidal, William B. Malouf, S. P. Manasse, Austin McManus, Dolph Obergef, George Roberson, Walter Sibbert, Norman Waters and George O. Wheeler.

PATHFINDERs are planning for their Peggy Hunt fashion show luncheon to be held at Thunderbird on November 19. Here Pathfinder president Mrs. S. P. Manasse, on left, consults with reservations chairman, Mrs. George Gannon, on right, and Mrs. Joseph Froggatt Jr., center who with Mrs. William B. Malouf, is co-chairman for the event, which is Pathfinder's first project of the winter season. (Desert Sun Photo)

Club Hears Talk on UNICEF

When Countess Viola Leigh Lukawieck addressed Palm Springs Soroptimists at their Tuesday luncheon meeting at Palm Springs Lanes, she went into detail about the work of UNICEF, which she described as an educational project.

A UNICEF project in which the local Soroptimist Club participates is the sale of Christmas cards, and the Countess told what is done with the money from the Christmas card sales, breaking it down into readily understandable units.

She said, the price of a stick of chewing gum (1c) represents the BOG vaccine to protect a child from TB; the price of a three cent stamp will provide a needy child with a glass of milk every day for two weeks; half the cost of a daily newspaper (5c) means the parent's to cure a child of yaws, a crippling, maiming, tropical disease; the cost of one phone call to a nearby town will protect a child against malaria for nearly a year; the price of a malted milk will provide sulfone to treat a child suffering from leprosy for a whole year; the thirty cents or so that a gallon of gasoline costs will pay for the successful treatment of trachoma, an eye disease that often leads to blindness.

Club members will be selling these Christmas cards in The Center on Monday, when United Nations Day is observed with a flag raising, followed by a luncheon at Town and Country restaurant.

An invitation was read from the Coachella Club to a desert meeting at Sports Corral, Palm Desert on Sunday evening at 7 p.m., when Trixie Jauvette will again report on her attendance at Soroptimist conventions in Detroit and London this past summer. Dr. George Millic, assistant Boy Scout Council Commissioner and leadership training chairman, will report on Boy Scouts Golden Jam-boree at Colorado Springs, when Soroptimist Club meets Tuesday at 12:15 at Palm Springs Lanes. Guests will be welcomed.

Teen Aged Invited to Meeting

All teen age girls are invited to attend a meeting Tuesday afternoon at 4:30 p.m., to coordinate plans for the Teen Angel contest which will be held later this winter. The meeting is to be held in the Palm Springs School of Dance at 32 The Plaza according to Edna Torrence, president of the Teen Aged Auxiliary, and all teen-age girls are encouraged to attend.

The teen-ager who becomes Teen Angel of the year, will win a wonderful vacation for two. Last year's Teen Angel, Bonnie Blackstone of P.M. Springs, won a vacation in Hawaii. Several other prizes are offered, including a course at the John Robert Powers School. Social events include a tea, a fashion show, and, as a climax, a Teen Angel Ball, at which time the new Teen Angel will be "hailed."

Teen Angeles are an auxiliary of the Angel View Crippled Childrens Foundation at Desert Hot Springs and raise money for A.V.C.C.F.

Tonight is the Western Party out at the Ranch Club ... with everyone invited to get into western costumes and join the fun ... It is the traditional opening party for this gay spot ... and the Naughty 90's Club upstairs opens at the same time ... Ranch Club owners Joyce and Noel Clarke will be here to host the affair and greet their many friends ... Following the Shearson, Hammill opening of their new Indian Avenue offices this afternoon ... Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Wells are hosting around 100 at a poolside dinner at their home on Granvia Valmonte ... Like nearly every other night this week ... there's a party for the visiting Washington press ... with Ray Ryan hosting a strictly invitational party in the Starlite Patio at the just re-opened El Mirador ...

Visiting press started their swing around Palm Springs (they LOVE this town) with an informal cocktail party ... hosted by Ed Davidson at the Ocotillo Wednesday night ... the party took over the cocktail lounge ... with piano music by Harry Gillingham ... and a buffet of hot hors d'oeuvres ...

Jim Hagerty was there ... happy after a busy day into which he had squeezed some golf ... and Anne Wheaton (assistant press secretary) ... and representatives of news bureaus and newspapers all over the country ... including the L. A. Times ... and security men and photographers ... and helicopter pilots ... and more young men than you will find at most Palm Springs parties ... plus local press ...

Ruth Hardy (my Hoosier compatriot) arrived with four visitors from Indiana ... the J. W. Costins and the M. H. Chandlers (they now live in Santa Monica) ... and of course, Eddie Davidson and I are both Hoosiers ... but exercising restraint no one sang "Back Home Again in Indiana" ... There are so many of us here in town (I hope you read Eddie's guest column this summer) we now Mt. Washington is covered with snow ... and all the forest is blended from reds to rusts ... except for the dark green pines ... They have been golfing and trap shooting and partridge hunting ... They will be missing the Costello party next weekend ... but start West about the first of the month ... planning to stop over in Boston for a little city life before jetting to Los Angeles ...

Florence and Harold Murphy are back from Tahoe ... where they spend their summers supervising their beautiful North Shore Hotel ... which was the rendezvous of so many Palm Springers this summer ... They are staying at Town and Desert until they leave November 3 for another around - the - world trip (their sixth) ... which will include a month at Mallorca ... They will return here around the end of March ...

The Murphys will be greeting their friends this weekend at the Costello party ... which is the traditional opening party for Palm Springs social season ... Sunday evening they will host a group of friends at Racquet Club's weekly buffet ... In the party will be the Earl Hendersons, Ed Robbins, Frank Ryans and John and Gwen Costello ...

Gwen (Mrs. William) Marcy of Buffalo ... arrived this past week to open their Avenida Olive home for the winter season ... Bill is Republican delegate for Erie county and busy campaigning for Nixon (but will join her here later ... This two were in Chicago this summer at the G.O.P. convention ...

The Jim Talmans, long - time residents of Palm Springs ... have returned to their home on Camino Real ... after spending their ninth summer at Port Townsend ... where they operate the Chev Chase Inn ... Their daughter Christine has returned to Westlake School for Girls ... and was recently elected president of her class ...

TOASTING THE CAROUSEL opening with owners Mr. and Mrs. Earl Kaitenbach, left, were Cactus Slim Morton, Mrs. Jim Paine and her husband president of the Palm Desert Hotel and Apartment Association, and Mrs. Morton. Morton, famed desert plant expert, did much of the planning to give it the oasis look. Kaitenbach, designer of "Tomorrowland" at Disneyland and numerous commercial developments, designed, built, and owns the Carousel, which is operated by his blonde wife. New inn has 20 studio units, convertible to 10 deluxe suites, features hi-fi and television in each room, plus hi-fi, and television in each room. Fitch-and-pull course, badminton, shuffleboard range complete compact luxury for sunny living. Carousel opened Saturday with public premiere. (Desert Sun Photo).

New Holiday Inn in Gala Debut

By RUTH STEINER

Saturday night between the hours of 6 and 10, Mr. and Mrs. Earl Kaitenbach hosted a champagne and buffet party for around 250 guests for the grand opening of their new Carousel Motor Inn, designed and built by the host. Champagne flowed freely from the lion's mouth of the unique 6 foot ice carving with orchids frozen in the base of the carving.

Some of the out of town guests attending this party were Mr. and Mrs. Josepa Malone (he is president of Wilshire Savings and Loan) Mr. and Mrs. Robert Grant, owners of the Caravan motels, the Fredrick Roberts, he is building the new landmark at Corona Del Mar, Mrs. Joseph Breen, Dr. and Mrs. Sharp, Mr. and Mrs. William Schworer, Mr. and Mrs. Mike Witte (he is president of Oil Exploration), the Rev. Charles Casassa who is president of Loyola University, Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Dougherty, Mr. and Mrs. Bert Dryer, a builder and an executive for Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer, Mr. and Mrs. John Griffith, Jr., Anthony Guido and Richard Smith, decorators and owners of the Crossroads in Whittier, the Rev. Robert Graham, president of the national alumni association of all the universities and colleges, the Frank Huberts, Denton Hildards, William Hackleys, Robert Leichts, Jim Mubers, Mrs. Mamie McDonald, owner of McDonald Publishing Co., Robert Ross, Gerald Werners, Mark Robinsons, Robert Perryman, the James Pragers, Sr. and Jr., of the Prager Insurance Co., Edward Nahlings, and on and on. Kaitenbach is a well known architect in the Los Angeles area and was the architect for "Tomorrowland" in Disneyland.

After a summer spent in their home on the St. Claire river in Marine City, Mich., Mr. and Mrs. Harry Holt returned home the first of the month. They visited their son, Jim and his family in Hingham, which is a suburb of Boston, Mass. While there, they celebrated their youngest grandchild's birthday. This young lady's name is Jill and she was a year old on Aug. 1. The Hols visited with friends in Chicago and Cleveland, stopping in Scottsdale, Ariz., the last night before returning home.

Indian Wells lady, golfers are planning many activities for the coming season, and Mizzi Beckman, chairman for the ladies auxiliary held a breakfast meeting Friday morning to discuss plans and suggestions with the group. Their first official meeting will be held Nov. 2.

Last Friday evening Mr. and Mrs. James Harstad held a cocktail party to officially open their Adobe Lodge for the season. Some of those on hand for this gala party were Mr. and Mrs. Ben Foster, Bobbie Reichert, Mr. and Mrs. Don Cameron, Mr. and Mrs. John Moran, Mr. and Mrs. Bob Robbins, Mr. and Mrs. John Noyes of the Desert Air Hotel, Mr. and Mrs. Cliff Henderson, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Hale, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Milliken, Molly Kenaston, Clancy Smith, Helen Huntington, Scott Blair, Shearnie Taylor, Hilma Lawrence of the Firecliff Lodge, Mr. and Mrs. Dan Callahan, Mr. and Mrs. Sterling Burnett of La Jolla, Mrs. Kathy Rawitzer (she and her husband have recently purchased a new home at Indian Wells) and Edith Warren, both of Minneapolis and others.

Quietly slipping off to San Diego, Lucile Armstrong and Lucine Miller were united in marriage Oct. 8, with just a few friends attending the ceremony. The couple left for a 10 day trip, going first to San Francisco, before returning home they visited with Lucile's three daughters, Beryl Rockwell of Lafayette, June Nicholson of La Crescenta and Joyce Wayman of Newhall. The Millers have moved into their new home at Bermuda Dunes and Lucile has also moved her office into the new Hopalong office building, adding a new secretary to her staff, Miss Fran DeWitt of Palm Springs.

Josephine Lemons just returned from Coronado Del Mar where she was a houseguest of Mrs. Alice McGonigle for a week. She reported a wonderful week as they visited and dined in a different club in the area every evening. Mrs. McGonigle is also well known here as she has had a home here for several years and is a frequent visitor to the desert.

Newcomers to the desert are Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Carter and their 11-year-old daughter, Renee, from Tekoa, Wash. The Carters have purchased a home on Bursera Street and Renee is attending Palm Valley School. Mr. and Mrs. Carter plan to return to Tekoa for the summer, where they have a large ranch.

Other recent newcomers, but well known here, are Mr. and Mrs. Harry F. Taylor of Glendale who have also purchased a home on Bursera Street. Mr. Taylor is president of Studio City, Inc., but plans to be able to spend at least every week in their new home.

Arriving here this week from Pontiac, Mich., are more newcomers who plan to make their home, Mr. and Mrs. Gilbert Schnake and their three children. Mrs. Schnake is a sister of Mike Walters, who is employed at Oster & Associates. They are all residing at the Blue Lagoon.

About 500 members and their guests were on hand for the 13th informal opening at Shadow Mountain Club Saturday night. Art and Doty Todd furnished the music and many of the old time members were there to greet them again, as they played for the very first opening of the club and have returned many times since then for engagements. The theme and decor was a political fun party, elephants and donkeys all over the club rooms.

Jerry Malone, Ted Smith, Harry Cannon and Cliff Carling enacted a clever political skit, and Dick Kite rendered several songs. Some of those seen here were Mr. and Mrs. Keith Crouse hosting a large table, Wendie Fowler with a party of 20, Dr. and Mrs. Kenneth Hayes at a large table, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Fithian, Mr. and Mrs. Herb Shaw, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Vernier, Governor and Mrs. Mon Walgren, who just recently returned, Mr. and Mrs. Wilber Bear, Mr. and Mrs. Art Cooper, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Henderson, Col. and Mrs. George Townsend, Mr. and Mrs. Cliff Henderson, Mr. and Mrs. Telford Thronson, the Don Hunttons, J. Seth Howells, Ralph Hales, Stephen Chases, Dr. and Mrs. P. W. Seals, Kay Olesens, J. F. O'Connors, William Brooks, R. G. Meyers, Roy Kesslers, F. Murray Keslers and others.

DANNY KAYE FILM TO BE SHOWN FREE FOR VILLAGE KIDS

Orange Show Decorators Rooms Due

'Decorator Rooms' To Keynote New Type Home Show

SAN BERNARDINO — Keynoting a new and novel departure in home show exhibits will be the "decorator rooms" featured in the "1961 Styles in Living" Show at the National Orange Show grounds in San Bernardino, Oct. 26-30.

Each "decorator room" will be beautifully and luxuriously presented in the smartest and newest colors and styles in furnishings and accessories.

CORRELATED WITH the room displays will be garden patios by Rosedale's of Riverside. A 1961 automobile will be parked in the adjacent "garage."

Cooperating in these exhibits will be The Harris Company, Nicholson's and John Henley, all San Bernardino shops; Huttman's Furniture and The Courtyard, Riverside; and Bruce L. Danielson, A. I. D., Redlands.

THE LARGE EXHIBITS will be the central feature in Swing Auditorium, in which daily stage shows, featuring top entertainment will be presented.

In addition, a high-style fashion revue, presented by the Fashion Show Guild under the direction of Aline Benesch, will be presented twice daily on the stage. Fall and winter casuals, cocktail and formal creations, will be modeled.

SHADES OF BRINKS — TWO YOUNGSTERS PULL ARMORED JOB

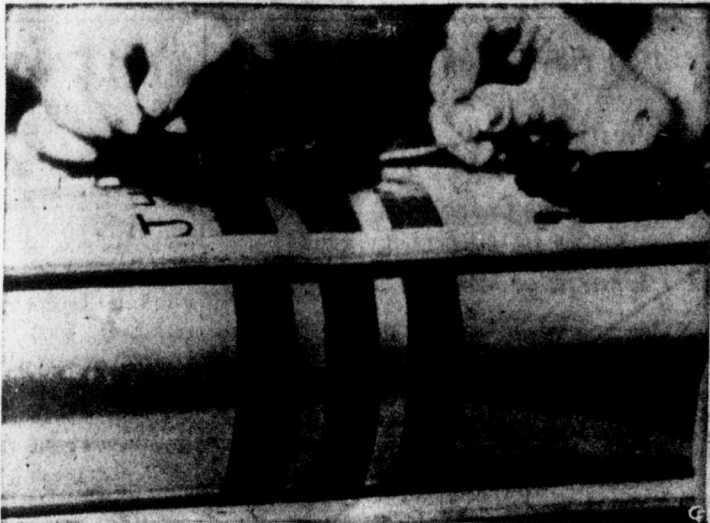

Achilles had his heel, and armored cars have gun ports. Palm Springs police reported.

One armored car service here is pondering the gun port problem, after a petty theft in open daylight over the weekend, by two youngsters who were turned over for parental discipline.

The youngsters cracked the iron-clad by slipping one school boy size hand into the gun port on the driver's side, and simply unlocking the door. Taken from the armored vehicle were one shotgun, one empty money bag.

Police apprehended the youngsters as they dashed — shotgun in hand — across South Palm Canyon Drive near the scene of the supply-armed entry. The youngsters were turned over to their father for appropriate action.

Informed sources estimated he turned them over a knee.

CROUCHING ON TOP OF "Life Cell" in which they were rocketed 650 miles above earth and returned safely, three mice, Sally, Amy and Moe are center of attention at news conference at Patrick Air Force Base, Cocoa Beach, Fla. Their epochal trip is forerunner of attempt to send man ultimately to moon and planets. (CPA Photo).

DHS ROTARY SET TO GREET PREXY

DESERT HOT SPRINGS — The Desert Hot Springs Rotary Club is preparing for the annual official visit of district president Walter Burr, Riverside, Nov. 9-10, president Harry S. Chester announced.

Chester reported the club has reached a new peak figure in membership, with 47 active members.

L.A. Insurance Exec Nominated For All-Year Job

LOS ANGELES — Horace W. Brower, Los Angeles insurance executive and civic leader, today was nominated to be president of the All-Year Club of Southern California during the 40th year of its campaigns to build the Southland's tourist business which brings in over half a billion dollars a year.

The All-Year Club, known as the "Dean" of America's community travel advertisers, has been carrying on the Southland's campaigns continuously since 1921. No comparable organization in the travel field has been in operation this long.

Elections will be held at the annual meeting of the All-Year Club's board of directors Oct. 26 at the Los Angeles Biltmore.

The new figure was reached with the induction of new members Herb Lopez and Oscar Shikley, local businessmen, during the last Thursday luncheon meeting at the Highlander restaurant.

Members Jack Morey and Don Hulbert were reactivated during the meeting.

U. S. Prestige Study Confirmed

WASHINGTON — (UPI) — A member of the hush-hush presidential committee confirmed today the group was trying to determine the status of U.S. prestige abroad, which has become a big issue in the election campaign.

One report said U.S. prestige was slipping. Confirmation of the committee's existence and investigation came from D. C. Jackson, publisher of Life magazine, and a member of the group. This came after the

Utah Matron Gets First Desert Visit

By JEAN PATANE

Enjoying her first trip to the desert, Mrs. Norma Rosevear of Salt Lake City, Utah, with her daughter-in-law, Mrs. Jerry Rosevear and grand-children, Timmy and Craig were houseguests of the young Mrs. Rosevear's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Baker. The Bakers were returning from a business trip in Oregon and Washington and Wednesday their guests accompanied them from Los Angeles to the desert. Jerry Rosevear joined the family for the weekend.

Weekend guests at the Palos Verdes Apartments, owned by the Bakers, were Mr. and Mrs. John W. Hackett, and Mr. and Mrs. Philip Hiley of Beverly Hills and W. T. Stenge of Aptos, Calif. Mid-week guests, here for several days, were Mr. and Mrs. Robert Wood of Laguna Beach, Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Forbes from Orange and Mr. and Mrs. Charles L. Stafford of Sacramento.

Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Steck spent the weekend in San Diego visiting friends. During the week they entertained Mr. and Mrs. Ed Griffith of Whittier.

Dr. and Mrs. Harold G. Hall of San Francisco who were frequent desert winter visitors before he retired from practice, have taken an apartment at the (La Serena on Banks Drive where they plan on making their home for a year or more. Also spending the winter in Sunair are Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Janner of Los Angeles, who have taken up residence at an apartment on Melrose Drive.

Terrace Apartments were Mr. and Mrs. H. K. Rowpel of Las Vegas, Mr. and Mrs. R. J. Glascock from Whittier, Mr. and Mrs. P. H. Wedel of Oakland, Miss Virginia Bowser and Miss Dana Howard of Santa Monica and frequent guests Mr. and Mrs. D. D. McGaughey from Laguna Beach.

The weekend was an eventful one for Mr. and Mrs. Robert McDowell and children, Judy, Linda and Charlie. They drove to Barstow where they made the home before moving to Sunair the early part of the summer to attend the dinner honoring the Past Masters of the Garston Masonic Lodge on Friday night and the Volunteer Firemen's Ball held Saturday night. And on Saturday afternoon Linda was honored in celebration of her seventh birthday, with a surprise party hosted by former schoolmates.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Reed of Alhambra and Dr. and Mrs. Benjamin Pearson of San Luis Obispo were weekend houseguests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. A.E. Cowan.

Weekend houseguests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Woodrow Poits and family were Mr. and Mrs. Tate Rounville and boys, Horace and Lee Albert, who make their home in Riverside.

Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Johnston of Santa Monica are at the Sunation Motel for a week or 10 days of desert relaxation, and Mr. and Mrs. Charles Nau were here from San Juan Capistrano for the weekend.
